At the end of Other Brother, Bon and Kieran receive a postcard from Julia, who is now living with her father on the south coast. On the first postcard, draw a picture of the place where she is living and make up a name for it. On the second, write the message Julia may have written to the boys.