There will come a day when a thousand Illegals descend on your detention centres. Boomers will breach the walls. Skychangers will send lightning to strike you all down from above, and Rumblers will open the earth to swallow you up from below ... And when that day comes, Justin Connor, think of me.

Ashala Wolf has been captured by Chief Administrator Neville Rose. A man who is intent on destroying Ashala's Tribe – the runaway Illegals hiding in the Firstwood. Injured and vulnerable and with her Sleepwalker ability blocked, Ashala is forced to succumb to the machine that will pull secrets from her mind.

Will the Tribe survive the interrogation of Ashala Wolf?

Discussion Questions

• “Before the Reckoning? There weren’t any Illegals back then. There were different peoples, though, different "races". Ember had told me about it, once – how things like my skin not being the same colour as hers, or the way Pen’s eyes were almond shaped, used to mean something. After the end of the old world, when there were so few humans left, everyone stopped worrying about things like that.” Discuss the implications of the statement that race and physical differences are no longer relevant.

• Even though people are no longer discriminated against because of physical appearance in Ashala’s world those with different abilities are classified as Illegal (unless they are given an Exemption) and are locked up to protect the Balance. “Humans fear difference, and when they are afraid, they will find a way to destroy what they fear.” Discuss humanity’s need to differentiate people and the inability to then accept the differences.

• What is the Balance? How is the Balance in the world of The Interrogation of Ashala Wolf similar to the concerns in our contemporary world with climate change?

• Neville Rose is often described as looking like a grandpa, and Ashala herself feels inclined to trust him because of his looks. How much do you think a person’s appearance can effect our perception of them?

• Ashala says to Neville Rose “I think your story is the Balance. You tell yourself that everything you do to Illegals is okay, because it’s all for the sake of the Balance.” But then she changes her mind “The reason Chief Administrator Neville Rose imprisoned and tortured Illegals was simply because he liked doing it and he’d never thought his action were for the good of the Balance. That was just something he said to other people.” What do you think Neville Rose’s motives are? Do you think he believes in what he is doing? Do you think he would be a bad person if he was just following his beliefs?

• Ashala’s strongest desire is to protect those she loves. Why do you think she feels so strongly about this? Do you think events in her past have influenced this? Do you think this makes Ashala a more appealing character?

• The Interrogation of Ashala Wolf uses a lot of metaphors for describing new and difficult concepts, such as the river and pebble metaphor used by Ember to describe how she will alter Ashala’s memories. What are some of the other metaphors used in the book? Do you think that using metaphors allows you to grasp foreign concepts better?

• Ember says that her ability allows her to “take memories from people. I can share them, change them and even invent ones that never happened. I can’t forget.” Discuss the positive and negative aspects of Ember’s ability. Is it a power that you would want yourself? Or is the compromise too much?

• Also, discuss how Ember’s ability can be seen as metaphorical for social media and the internet in our contemporary society.

• “I mean, everyone knew the dangers of advanced tech. It had isolated the people of the old world from nature, shielding them from the consequences of imbalance, and yet they’d believed, right up until the very end, that it would save them.” Discuss how in Ashala’s world the Reckoning was caused by technology and computers and the effects they had on the Balance. As a result, computers and technology are strickly regulated. Do you think this is right?
• Could technology have a similar effect on our world as it does in Ashala’s? Discuss the dangers that technology represents to our culture and our reliance upon it.
• Ashala allows Ember to rearrange her mind and her knowledge of the world. Discuss the level of trust and friendship that gives Ashala the confidence to allow Ember to do this.
• Draw a timeline of the plot. Plot on the timeline who has power at certain points in the novel and who thinks they have power. Are these often different? Why is power such a major theme in The Interrogation of Ashala Wolf?
• In The Interrogation of Ashala Wolf some characters believes that the way to change the world is through changing how people think and others believe it is more effective to change the world through actions and violence. Set up a mock debate to discuss each of these views, where each side must defend why their method of changing the world would be more effective.
• In what way is the dream figure of the Serpent reminiscent of Indigenous Australian culture? What other aspects of the novel have drawn from Indigenous Australian culture? Do you think these add depth and cultural identity to the novel?
• How is the Indigenous Australian idea of learning from Elders represented in the novel? How does this explore the idea of loss of cultural identity?

Short and Fun

• If you lived in the world of the Tribe what ability would you have?
• If you were to join the saurs what would your saur name be?
• Which animal would you have a connection with if you were part of the Tribe? And what would your name become?
• Create a movie trailer for The Interrogation of Ashala Wolf. How do you convey the plot of the book without giving too much of the story away?
• Draw a map of the world in The Interrogation of Ashala Wolf.
